

CAT 216 : Introduction to Music Therapy

The course will cover the history and techniques of music therapy as a profession, as well as the use of music therapy in the treatment of clients in all age groups who possess physical, behavioral, psychological, or neurological disorders. In addition to lecture and class discussion students will have opportunities to lead and participate in music interventions.

Credits 3