

CAT 218 : Introduction to Theatre Therapy

The use of drama as a therapeutic technique is examined through experiential and theoretical components. The course will enhance students' awareness of the creative process through assigned readings and prepared activities.

Credits 3