

HST 332 : Sage-Troy Oral History Project

The Sage-Troy Oral History Project (STOHP) is an ongoing effort to collect and archive oral history interviews of people with important and interesting experiences in Russell Sage College and Troy communities. Students will work independently preparing, conducting, and processing oral history interviews under the guidance of the instructor.

Credits 1

Prerequisite Courses

HST 232