

MAT 111 : Math for Teaching and Learning I

This course provides a mathematics treatment of the fundamental concepts of problem solving, reasoning, arithmetic, numeration systems, number theory, and developmentally appropriate strategies and activities as they relate to the elementary mathematics curriculum. This course is limited to childhood & early childhood/middle childhood education majors.

Credits 3