

AEM 202: Color and Light

In this course students will explore theories relating to color and the effects of light on 2D & 3D work, the environment, and time. Students will learn how to effectively use color and light as tools for aesthetic and conceptual expression.

Credits: 3

Program: Art and Extended Media