

PED 308: Movement Education & Educational Gymnastics

This course provides candidates with foundational, knowledge of teaching techniques that foster creative movements. Candidates will apply movement concepts to various balancing and gymnastic skills. This class requires active participation where candidates participate in movement lessons.

Credits: 0.5

Program: Physical Education