

PED 310: Measurement and Eval in PED

This course examines various ways to evaluate motor abilities, fitness skills and cognitive abilities with developmental understandings. Students will learn formal assessment strategies as well as performance assessment rubrics to evaluate individuals' progress. Documenting program compliance with standards and evaluating program effectiveness will be ancillary foci of the course.

Credits: 3

Program: Physical Education